

1108

In France, Accession of Louis VI the Fat.

. 1108

(C1080-1137) Louis VI, le Gros (The Fat)

King of France (1108-1137). The son and successor of Philip I. He did much in defense of the church. Enriched and enlarged his empire by the acquisition of all possible territory. He was engaged in war with Henry I, of England.

1108-1137

1912 Dates J-BK

France

Under Louis VI, the communes were freed from count interference
on the payment of a tax.

the Basilica of St. Clement at Rome was rebuilt.

1108-1137

1912 Dates. J-BK

France

Louis VI, the Fat was king.

1108

France

ABBE SUGER, minister of Louis VI of France